

AUDITION CALL FOR TEEN ACTORS
"Raising The Bar: Exploring The Actor's Process"
2024 WFT@BU TEEN ADVANCED PERFORMANCE INTENSIVE

Wheelock Family Theatre at Boston University is holding auditions for teens entering high school up to 18 years old with prior training and performance experience committed to deepening their acting skills and knowledge of the craft. A limited number of admission slots are available on a rolling basis and the program will be held in person. Teen actors selected for this program will immerse themselves for three weeks in intensive advanced theatre training. Through challenging exercises and workshops in vocal, movement, and character work, and exploration of scenes from outstanding plays, students will experience the actor's process in-depth. This unique summer acting program culminates in a public showcase of our work.

PROGRAM DATES:

Monday, July 29th -Friday, August 16th (3 WEEKS)

M-F 12:00pm - 6:45pm

Final Showcase: August 16th

AUDITION INFORMATION: Actors interested in auditioning for the Advanced Performance Intensive are asked to upload a resume listing any arts training and performance experience. Please also include a statement of purpose on why you are auditioning for this specific program and what your goals are if accepted.

PLEASE SUBMIT MATERIALS ON THE FOLLOWING LINK:

GOOGLE FORM

PLEASE NOTE: Auditionees will then be contacted by the program directors to schedule an in person working audition and personal interview.

Have any questions? You can call a member of our Education staff at 617.353.2994 or email us at WFTED@bu.edu

AUDITION REQUIREMENTS: Two contrasting monologues from plays, one comedy and one drama, totaling approximately three minutes. One of the two pieces should be from: a classical play or one that emphasizes heightened language, or a play written before 1960 and the other from a contemporary play.

