

Raising The Bar: Exploring The Actor's Process

2026 WFT@BU TEEN ADVANCED PERFORMANCE INTENSIVE

Wheelock Family Theatre at Boston University is holding auditions for teens entering high school, up to 18 years old, with prior training and performance experience, committed to deepening their acting skills and knowledge of the craft. Teen actors selected for this program will immerse themselves for two weeks in intensive advanced theatre training. Through challenging exercises and workshops in vocal, movement, and character work, and exploration of scenes from outstanding plays, students will experience the actor's process in-depth. This unique summer acting program culminates in a public showcase of our work.

PROGRAM DATES:

August 3- August 14th. 10:30-5 p.m.

Showcase: Friday, August 15th.

AUDITION INFORMATION: Actors interested in auditioning for the Advanced Performance Intensive are asked to upload a resume listing any arts training and performance experience. Please also include a statement of purpose on why you are auditioning for this specific program and what your goals are if accepted. Please submit a video audition of a 1-2 minute monologue. Following the video submission, you may be invited to an in-person or virtual audition/ interview and/or a group audition later in the year.

Please slate with your name, grade/age and the monologue you will be performing. Submit audition materials here.
